The new chimney to the Ottauquechee woolen mill at North Hartland has been completed and is 125 feet high.

Roy Blow and David Larow, both of Milton, have been sentenced to not less than four years at Windsor after pleading guilty to burglarizing camps in Grand Isle.

Senators of the legislature of 1917 had an outing June 20 at Lake Champlain. Lieut, Gov. Hurlburd of Hyde Park and 14 members of the Senate, with 24 guests, made up the party.

Albert Comstock, who died at his nome in South Burlington June 21, was born on that farm in 1830 and had never lived anywhere else. Mrs. Comstock is 85 years old and they had been married 64 years. Mr. Comstock represented South Burlington in the legislature of Lieut. Walter M. Tenney, who had been reported missing, is probably a prisoner behind the German lines, but he has written his brother, Arthur G. Tenney of St. Albans. It was feared that he had been killed. The postcard was dated May 2 and marked Ludwigshafen. He referred to wounds and that he hoped next time to be able to give an address.

Gilbert A. Davis of Windsor, one of the oldest members of the Windsor coun ty bar, has handsomely remembered his birthplace by giving a clock to Ches-ter. It was recently installed in the Congregational church tower. A bronze tablet was also given the church and on its face are inscribed the names of Mr. Davis' parents, Asa and Mary Hosmer Davis, and the name of his sister, Martha Tileston Miller. The dedication services were held Sunday and the min-isters of the village, Hugh Henry and Mr. Davis, took part.

war service and leaves this week for Camp Devens. His brother, Harold, who enlisted in the chemical section of the army and has been in Washington, D. C., was seriously injured last week while working in the laboratory on poison gas, by which he was overcome. His hands were also burned by the acid. While he was being removed to a hospital, the ambulance overturned and both war service and leaves this week for pital, the ambulance overturned and both Mr. Steigler's arms were broken and he rupled its quota." Beyond this comes received scalp wounds.

To Open Club for Red Cross.

St. Albans, June 25.—At a special meeting of the Autonoc club, the woman's club of the city, yesterday afternoon, it was voted to open the rooms as often as they are needed for Red Cross work. They have been kept open two days a week the past year. It was voted to send a check for $25 for the work of the National Defenders' club. A vote was taken that the custom of serving tea on Wednesday and Saturday afteroversubscribe a $70,000,000 oversubscription. Figures like that, which once would have staggered us, no longer do so. America is rising to a higher level where money stands for what it can do in the way of serving the great cause,
and where old and selfish considerations
fade into insignificance. "Not only did

Witters of St. Johnsbury, who was un-able to attend and speak, sent greetings. A feature of the program were vocal solos by Miss Carolyn Bell, teacher of French in the high school, and Miss Hortense Robillard.

The following officers were elected: President, F. Irving Dutcher; vice-president, Miss Kate G. Cummings; secretary. M. Darwin Greene; treasurer, Miss Katherine E. Bryant.

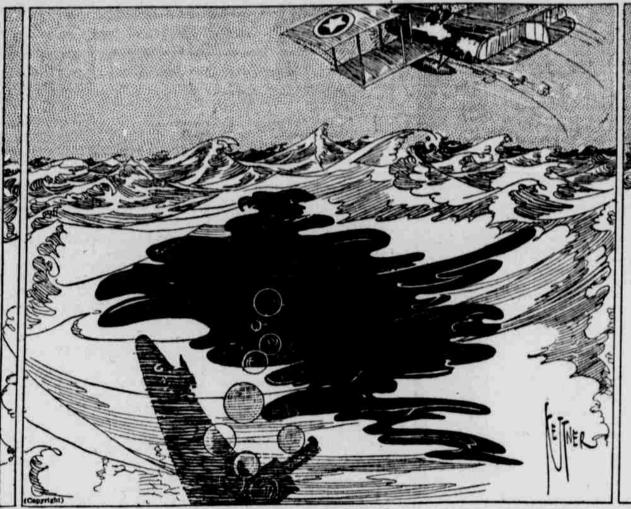

At the close a dance was held in the armory. The net proceeds of the ban-quet and dance will go to the Red Cross.

Singing Makes Soldiers Work.

There is an article in the June Farm and Fireside in which the writer says: "At each of the army and navy training camps the government has placed a skilled song leader to stimulate mass singing. Recently I was driving around Camp Devens at Ayer, Mass., with the camp song leader. We came across a group of soldiers pulling stumps. The swing of their picks was uneven with the logging. The task was a hard one there was no vigor or enthusiasm displayed. We stop here a minute, said my driver. In a jiffy he flapped an oil-cloth over his windshield. The men smiled and ceased their work, some

"In another minute I had my explanation. Standing by his steering wheel the song leader beat time while the men mng the song written on the oilcloth The singing was fair. Another song was tried, and then another. Each time I place on the could see improvement, more spirit, more zest. At the end of twenty minutes, which had fairly flown, the song leader pulled up his oilcloth and prepared to drive on. 'Come again,' sang out the officer in charge, and from the back of the automobile I saw those soldiers pegging away at the stumps with renewed energy, almost enthusiasm."
